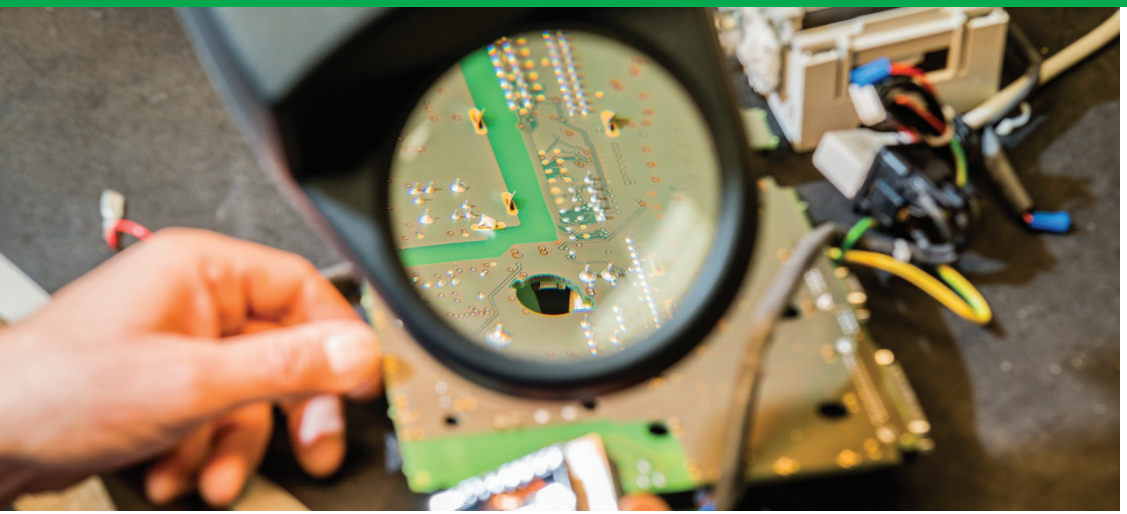
BIO-MEDICAL EQUIPMENT

MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR



Avensys are an independent provider of bio-medical equipment support

Avensys UK Ltd, owned by HERMED GmbH (part of the VAMED group), provide a professional, quality assured, maintenance and repair service for bio-medical equipment.

Experienced engineers operate from workshops throughout the UK providing a cost-effective, alternative solution to OEM contracts. We offer one-off repairs, short term or annual contracts, depending on the level of support you require. All equipment is serviced and repaired in accordance with statutory, advisory and manufacturer's documentation.

Our audit service allows you to verify your asset inventory using our secure online asset management database. All equipment is logged by us, enabling the service and maintenance history of each device to be tracked 24/7. This detailed information enables customers, including NHS Trusts, to effectively manage their capital replacement programmes, ensuring all equipment is fit for purpose.
